

The Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences

declares that

Fathima Ruzaika Arshad

has attended the honours module with a grade of

DISTINCTION

*Intercultural Communication
Model To Practice Dialogue™*

As part of a Collaborative Online International Learning (C.O.I.L.) with

Auckland University of Technology &
Akademia Leona Koźmińskiego

the student has manifested the following honours competences:

1. Learn to navigate the way culture influences people who work together internationally.
2. Participated in a lecture with the International Criminal Court: explored the role of court interpreters, the impact of culture and language within the court and how this shapes legal decisions.
3. Reflect on intercultural learning experiences and applied this knowledge within an international business environment to create a best practices case model.
4. Practiced Honours course pedagogy, both didactical skills as well as content, within a diverse group of international students.

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, 20 January, 2022

Honours Director AUAS:
Irena van Nynatten-Janikowska MSc

Lecturer Akademia Leona Koźmińskiego:
Dr. Jacek Nożewski

Lecturer Auckland University of Technology
Dr. Elba Ramirez
E Ramirez

MTPD™ Coordinator AUAS:

Emily Rutland MA

*Professor, Translation & Interpreting
Auckland University of Technology*

Dr. Ineke Hendrika Martine Crezee

Cour Pénale Internationale
Diederick Zanen LLM